

From: Jeff Kirkpatrick <jeffk_24@bellsouth.net>
Sent: Saturday, September 19, 2015 9:33 AM
To: EBSA, E-ORI - EBSA
Subject: RIN 1210-AB32

Please do not enact this proposal. Consumers need choices. Limiting choices of investment alternatives shifts the advantages further toward the rich. Where Congress can help is by enacting regulations for financial advisors to provide portfolio performance information upfront similar to mutual fund disclosures or by standardized client satisfaction ratings. This would help consumers make educated decisions about their financial decisions. Thank you.